Christmas Day

Holy God, who sent your Son to earth as a baby, may we appreciate the depth of your love, and as gifts are shared among family and friends, let your unconditional love reach those who are alone this Christmas Day.

Friday, 26

First Martyr

Holy God, as we remember Stephen, the first Christian martyr, we pray for all those whose faith puts them in danger of persecution or death. Give courage to us as we seek to follow you.

Saturday, 27

John, Apostle and Evangelist

Beloved God, we pray for those children everywhere who are caught up in the cruelty of the world: in war, in want, in neglect and abuse. May the purity of your love never leave them, may the hope of your love burn fiercely forever in their hearts.

Sunday, 28
December
The Holy Innocents

God in Trinity, eternal unity of perfect love: gather the nations to be one family and draw us into your holy life through the birth of Emmanuel, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Monday, 29

Eternal God, as we remember Thomas Becket, Archbishop of Canterbury, we pray for Sarah, our Archbishop designate, as she prepares to take on this historic and challenging role. Help her to be grounded in love for you and your people.

Tuesday, 30
December

Heavenly Father we pray for Revd Guy Scott as he also becomes Assistant Priest for the Parishes of Coleford, Holcombe and Kilmersdon. Give him the strength and encouragement he will need as he embarks on this new role. Stay very close to him, Lord.

Wednesday,
31 December

As one year ends and we look toward the beginning of another, Father help everyone in our Magnificat* parishes look towards 2026 with the vision of you in their hearts and a renewed passion to share the love of Christ with all they meet. Renew hearts, minds, bodies and souls.

*Our Magnificat parishes are those which are high on the Index of Multiple Deprivation.

Living and telling the story of Jesus

Monday, 1
December

Lord of Creation, at this time of year when we are particularly surrounded by consumerism, help us to reflect upon the environmental and ethical impacts of our purchases and to choose, where we can, to reduce our impact and waste.

Tuesday, 2
December

God of love, surround all those we love, and those who we can no longer see. Be light in our darkness, be hope in our fear, be love in every moment, and give us grace to face each day ahead.

Wednesday,
3 December

Inclusive God, we ask that you honour the gifts that every one of your children offers the world, as Christ honoured both the lavish gifts from the wise men and the humble gifts of the shepherd.

Thursday,
4 December

Lord God, help us to so reflect your perfect love, that we may rule ourselves according to your Word, and serve you with our whole heart; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Friday, 5
December

Jesus, Light of the World, inspire those preparing for and leading services and events in churches, schools, chaplaincies and communities across our diocese this month. May the story of the nativity come alive for people of all ages this Christmas.

Saturday,

Lord Jesus Christ, we give you thanks that you are for us medicine when we are sick; strength when we need help; life itself when we fear death; the way when we long for heaven; light when all is dark and our food when we need nourishment.

Sunday, 7

Second Sunday

Almighty God, purify our hearts and minds, that when your Son Jesus Christ comes again as judge and saviour, we may be ready to receive him, who is our Lord and our God.

Monday, 8

Creator God, as we give thanks for the life of Mary, mother of Jesus, our Lord, help us, like her, to live lives of humble, courageous obedience to your will so that we may glorify your name.

Tuesday, 9

Loving God, as children from around our diocese gather to worship with Bishop Michael, we ask that their worship catches the wind of your Holy Spirit and is a source of inspiration and joy.

Wednesday,
10 December

God of rest, as we approach a season of busyness, may you still our hearts today and quieten our minds to bring the deep peace of the promise of your birth into our minds and enable us to draw strength from the true meaning of your immense gift to us.

Thursday, 11
December

Faithful God, we bring before you those who offer acts of service to people across our diocese in so many ways, seen and unseen. We give thanks for their witness and ask you to build us up as the Body of Christ.

Friday, 12
December

Storyteller Jesus, may we live and tell your story in churches, homes and schools this Advent. May there be no one left not knowing the story of your coming into our world, and may the love, joy and peace you bring be experienced by many.

Saturday, 13
December

O Blessed Jesus, give us stillness of soul in you.
Let your mighty calmness reign in us. Rule us, O King of Gentleness, King of Peace.
(Based on prayer attributed to St John of the Cross)

Sunday, 14
December

Third Sunday of

God for whom we watch and wait, you sent John the Baptist to prepare the way of your Son: give us courage to speak the truth, to hunger for justice, and to suffer for the cause of right, with Jesus Christ our Lord.
