All Bible references are from the *New Revised Standard Version*¹⁰

¹ This is both a 'book in a series' and an 'e-book' p18,p19 of the Toolkit

² This is easiest treated as a simple single author book p.17 of the Toolkit. However, the astute might have realised that it was in fact part of a series and so used p18 Journal Supplements are a series but not in the normal sense of being united by a common theme or author. So both answers are acceptable.

³ This is a commentary in a commentary series known as the Word Biblical Commentary. p.18.

⁴ This is an article in an edited book, p.18 with multiple editors. As with the Davies entry at 2, you could also add that it is in the Supplement Series.

⁶ Videos and You Tube p20

⁷ This is a translated book, p.17 note the original date and the date of translation.

⁸ Article or chapter in a book p.18

⁹ This entry is an e-article p.19. where the author is a Church organisation rather than an individual.

¹⁰ See p21. You should have the version of the Bible you use in italics.
